

New course 2024

BUSINESS ETHICS

and ethical decision making

Target audience:

Business executives
Business managers Entrepreneurs
Small business owners
Human resources professionals

Date and duration:

08.02.2024
9h-16h

Place:

Chamber of Commerce (Chambre de Commerce du Luxembourg)

7 Rue Alcide de Gasperi,
L-1615 Kirchberg
Luxembourg

Room: F12

Language:

English

Our experts:

Dr. Tatiana Nosova

Price:

420 EUR (HTVA)

Online inscription:

Contact us:

learning@ypzeelon.com

Objectives:

Identify moral issues in corporate organizations. Examine the role of ethics in leadership and its impact on organizational culture and employee morale. Explore different codes of ethics and enhance the ability to improve corporate policies and practices. Acquire practical skills in ethical decision-making.

Content:

Module 1. Introduction to business ethics

Historical background and evolution of business ethics;
Definitions and concepts of business ethics;
Ethical trends and common practices;
Main ethical issues in business.

Module 2. Objectives and elements of business ethics

Values and principals;
Primary and secondary stakeholders;
Moral intelligence and responsible leaderships.

Module 3. Ethics in workplace

Deontology and obligations of the organisation;
Common practices and corporal code of ethics;
Corporate social responsibility and culture of integrity;
Role of the Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer.

Module 4. Ethical decision making in organisation

Ethical dilemmas;
Value based decision making;
Problem-focused investigation process;
Role of the individual in business ethics.